

To expand our international business we are looking for sales agents and business partners based in:

- China
- India
- MENA
- GCC
- Scandinavia

In order to become an artec AIS sales agent you should have:

- excellent network in oil & gas, power or petrochemical industry with existing contacts to end users and EPC's
- proven sales background and experience in valve industry
- strong sales mentality

Responsibilities:

- capture and extend new market segments by executing proactive sales activities within the sales region
- hold customized sales presentations which address the specific needs of prospective clients

